PRESIDENT: Read them in.

CLERK: Mr. President, LR137 will be inserted in the Journal, introduced by Senator Clark. Mr. President, it will be referred to the Executive Board for a review.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lewis.

SENATOR R. LEWIS: Mr. President in regard to the Resolution just mentioned, I co-signed that with Senator Clark and I would like to have that acknowledged.

CLERK: Yes, I am sorry it is by Senator Clark and Senator Dick Lewis.

SENATOR R. LEWIS: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Legislative Resolution 134.

CLERK: Mr. President LR134 is found on page 1155 in the Legislative Journal. Introduced by Senator Koch. Read Resolution.

PRESIDENT: Do you wish to be heard on this Senator Koch?

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. President, I just ask for the acceptance of the Resolution. I think that there are enough members of this body who co-signed it. It is merely to bring to the attention of the state and to this body, the efforts of this group on behalf of young children of not only this state but the nation.

PRESIDENT: Question is the adoption of LR134. Record your vote. Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 37 ayes, 0 nays.

PRESIDENT: Resolution passes. We go to LR136.

CLERK: Senator Maresh asks unanimous consent to add his name as an introducer of LR136.

PRESIDENT: That shall be done.

CLERK: Read LR136.

PRESIDENT: Senator Burrows.

SENATOR BURROWS: Mr. Chairman, members of the Legislature. I just passed out a copy, a summary of the study that has gone on during the last year. What this Resolution is very simply, is it is a recommitment of the Resolution that we passed last year supporting continued study and efforts to get the Old West Regional Commission and the regional concept of this veterinary college. It is a legislative recommitment very simply of what we did last year, in simple words, I think. The summary shows that on the old west plan now they have planned on a page with a chart the five states total would be 8.4 million. The Old West Regional Commission if
